

SHORT BOOKING AGENT BIO

There is something fresh and exciting about Dallas' vocalist Carolyn Lee Jones. It's captured in her style, sound and performance. With influences ranging from Julie London, Anita O'Day and Shirley Horn to Diana Krall and Laura Nyro, sophisticated Classic Jazz to Vintage Pop, she makes the standards sound new and the new sound standard. It's the perfect representation of who she is and the musicians in her band. Carolyn has performed extensively throughout the Dallas Fort Worth Metroplex, various NYC Cabaret-Jazz venues and has recorded three CD's; one featuring world renown composer and singer Bob Dorough.

Her extensive eclectic vocal repertoire includes; beautiful ballads, renditions of the familiar jazz standards from the Great American Songbook, retro vintage pop songs with a jazzy twist and other contemporary music. Carolyn embraces her audience and the music with style and sophistication. Performing with her stellar group of musicians as a duo, trio, quartet, quintet, small group and big band.

Press

"Jones Attacks each song with the vigor of a wildcatter yet maintains a dusky under current that drips with sensuality" Jazz Times – Christopher Loudon

She can wrap us around her finger with the simplest lyric and melody line or fascinate us with her fascinating mixture of styles. AMAZON 5 Star Review - Grady Harp

For More Information About Carolyn Lee Jones visit www.carolynleejones.com