ABOUT MISS JONES! Jazz Vocalist

“Jones attacks each song with the vigor of a wildcatter yet maintains a dusky under current that drips with sensuality”

Jazz Times Magazine
CD Review - Christopher Loudon

She always wanted to be a singer! After a very successful career in luxury retail, Carolyn Lee Jones reinvented herself and emerged a talented vocalist.

Her musical journey began as a child while growing up in Nebraska. During her formative years, Carolyn sang in her school musicals, choirs and studied voice. Both of her parents were talented gifted musicians. After graduation, the lure of a bigger city drew her to Dallas, Texas where she pursued a successful 1st career in retailing for luxury stores. Carolyn traveled the world and continued to seek out music related opportunities and performed as she traveled. In 2008, she made the decision to pursue music full time as a jazz vocalist and bandleader.

She can wrap us around her finger with the simplest lyric and melody line or fascinate us with her fascinating mixture of styles. Simply stated she just HAS it and here it is for everyone's enjoyment...

Carolyn Lee Jones' influences and choices of genre are as broad as her vocal styling is rich. She makes standards sound new and the new sound standard. It is something of an audio calling card, the perfect representation of who she is and the musicians in her band.

Her extensive eclectic vocal repertoire includes; beautiful ballads and renditions of the traditional and familiar jazz standards from the Great American Songbook, the evolution of vintage pop songs into the jazz context, new material as well as and other popular music. Whether singing those famous pop and jazz standards, beautiful and sultry ballads or contemporary popular tunes with her own jazz twist, Carolyn embraces her audience and the music with heart, style and sophistication!
