Carolyn Lee Jones - Jazz Vocalist

Carolyn embraces her audience and the music with style and sophistication. Her eclectic repertoire, from jazz and The Great American Songbook to vintage popsongs with a jazz sensibility, reveals a vocalist with a genuine gift of swing and interpretation.

Since launching her music career in 2008, Carolyn has independently released five CDs and five singles on the Catn'round Sound label. Her first recording featured the late composer and singer Bob Dorough on piano and a vocal duet on his very famous song " Devil May Care."

Carolyn develops and performs Cabaret-Jazz shows including "Pardon My Southern Accent" and "Too Marvelous For Words" (the music of Johnny Mercer), "Songs From My Mother's Piano Bench" (a romp through the Great American Songbook), "Hooray For The Girls" (jazz & vintage pop female composers and lyricists) and "Girl Talk" ( the music of Julie London and Bobby Troup). From 2010 to 2015 she was a principal alto with The New Collection, a 20 voice a cappella group led by well-known vocal jazz arranger and Professor Emeritus Paris Rutherford of the University of North Texas Vocal Jazz Department.

Her home base is Dallas-Fort Worth where you will find Carolyn performing at numerous venues, festivals and private affairs. Carolyn puts together a stunning show for any occasion, venue or budget. Whether it is for an intimate duo with piano or guitar or an impressive 20 piece big band, it all blends perfectly with her sophisticated style.

About Carolyn Lee Jones... Have You Met Miss Jones? Fresh Vintage Jazz!

"This oxymoron, Fresh Vintage, quite accurately conveys the character of the vocalist's repertoire and the niche that she occupies on the jazz scene." Jazz Quad Review Europe

Early- Though music was a large part of Carolyn Lee Jones' formative years in Nebraska, she was lured to the big city of Dallas pursuing a career with luxury retailers. Because she happily traveled the world as a Buyer, her exposure too and the love of music never ceased. Carolyn sought out opportunities to sing in NYC and abroad, while flourishing successfully in her first profession. "I knew that one day I'd be a full-time classic jazz- vintage pop vocalist, it was just a matter of when! Retailing was just another type of show business!"

Pro- Her choice to be a jazz-pop vocalist and bandleader was a natural next step. Bursting on to the jazz scene in 2008 she is living proof that it is possible to reinvent yourself. From classic jazz to vintage pop, she makes the standards sound new and the new sound standard. Carolyn performs with her groups; Fresh Vintage Jazz, The Satin Dolls Band and In Full Swing 8 pc ensemble to a 20 piece big band.

Special Shows & Booking Options - In addition to her regular jazz repertoire, Jones has developed, produced, and performed a series of 6 themed Cabaret jazz shows to sell out crowds. She is honored with the prestigious Cabaret Artist Of The Year Award for 2017 by The Sammons Center For The Arts in Dallas, Tx.

The Satin Dolls Band, an all female ensemble celebrating women composers, lyricists, librettists and singers of the 20th century and beyond. The Satin Dolls Band performs classic jazz favorites, blues, Broadway, R&B, original compositions and retro-pop favorites with a jazz twist. The band's name is a nod to the 1953 jazz song Satin Doll, composed by Duke Ellington and Billy Strayhorn with lyrics by Johnny Mercer.

Carolyn performs with her stellar group of musicians as Carolyn Lee Jones & her Fresh Vintage Jazz ... duo, trio, quartet, quintet, 8 pc small group, The Satin Dolls Band (an all female jazz ensemble) and In Full Swing Big Band.
